- Fees are charged per term.
- No classes will run on Public Holidays. Term fees are created to reflect classes missed due to Public Holidays.
- Fees are due on the last day of the previous term, unless a direct debit payment plan is in place.
- Late enrolments: Fees are prorated from the week of enrolment.
- Voluntary withdrawal from classes will incur a two-week cancellation period from the date of notifying club Administration. Notification of withdrawal must be made via email. Credits will be created in-line with the cancellation period for any remaining classes after this period.
- Sibling discounts: A 2.5% discount applies for each additional sibling enrolled when multiple siblings attend. Discounts do not apply to registration fees, Holiday programs or additional invoices
- Two makeup classes permitted for GFA and KinderGym programs per term when prior notification of absence is given or up to 24 hours after a missed class. Make-up classes must be used within the current term as these do not carry across to the next term.
- If outstanding fees are not paid, the club reserves the right to refuse gymnasts to participate in their program during the term or in the future.
